THIS MONTH'S MEETING

An outstanding meeting is planned for Thursday, March 17th at 7:30pm. Dr. Ralph Woodward, former member of the choral faculty at Brigham Young University and founder of the Ralph Woodward Chorale will discuss "Appropriate Music for Church Worship". This will be an excellent opportunity to invite fellow musicians - please share this information with those in your ward, stake or church, with either choral or instrumental background - this will be valuable information regardless of position held. Location: Edgemont 8th and 10th Ward Chapel, 3050 Mojave Lane, Provo (in the Indian Hills area.)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We hope that all of you are preparing to participate in the upcoming chapter recital planned for April 14. In order for this evening to be successful, each of us needs to be actively involved. You will be contacted by a member of the guild within the next two weeks to let you know about the time, place and practice arrangements for the instrument we will be using.

Notification has come from the National Headquarters of the AGO regarding reduced rates for joining the guild between February and April 30, 1988. Regular national dues $16.50, Special(student, under 21, over 65) $9.75, Chapter only $8.00. If you have not yet renewed, now is the time.

New Address: Michelle Adams
788 North 700 East #10
Provo, Utah 84604
374-1778

The Chapter Officers would welcome any ideas and suggestions on topics or events for future chapter meetings. This is your organization with the purpose of expanding your talents and understanding, so we would like to meet your needs and wants. If you are not actively participating right now, how can we help to make meetings more meaningful so you will participate? Responses to any of the officers would be appreciated.

FOR SALE: Rodger's "Deseret" Organ presently in Rivergrove Chapel, in excellent condition. Contact Doug Bush to see and for details. 378-2317 or 373-1675
