DEAN'S MESSAGE

Summer is almost over and I have not yet rested, but if the old adage, "a change is as good as a rest," is true, then I am ready to press onward. We hope all of you are ready for another worthwhile year as members of the Guild. We, as officers, are ready to serve you.

AUGUST OPENING SOCIAL

Robin Cardon has graciously offered her home in Midway as a retreat for us to eat good food and enjoy good company. Robin will share with us experiences special to her of the circumstances which resulted in her having a large Rodger's organ in her home.

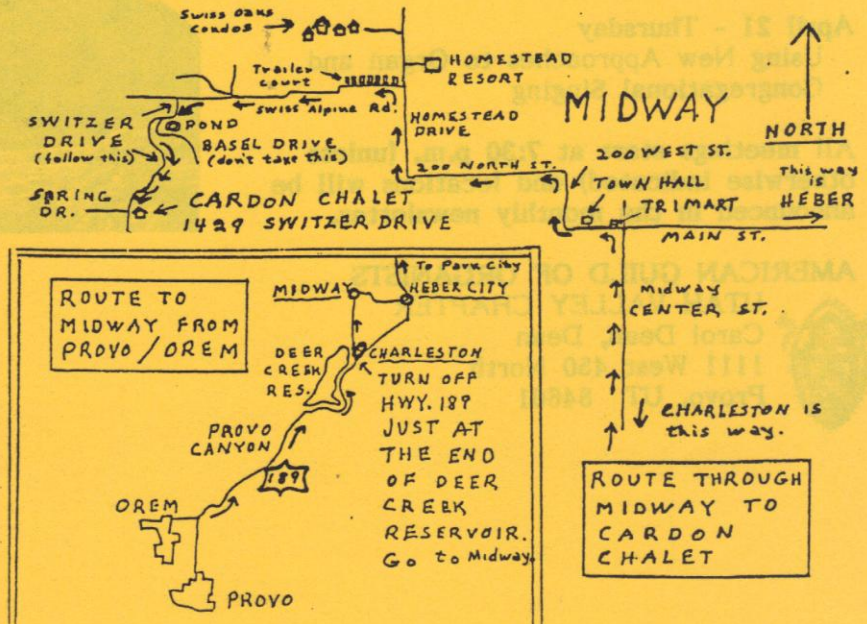

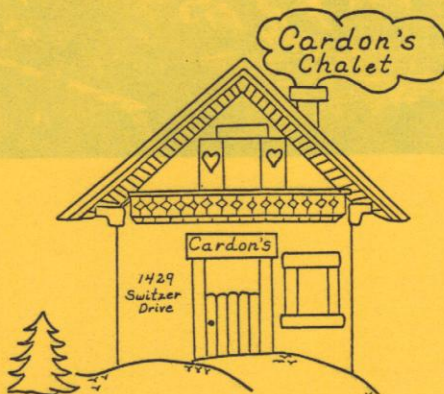

The social will be Friday, August 27th, at 6:30 p.m. in Midway (1429 Switzer Dr., phone 54-5204, if you get lost). See map below. Please check your calendars immediately and make note of whether you will be attending, as next week we will be calling you with food assignments.

COLLEAGUE EXAM

Congratulations to Ronnie Grauman and Carol Dean who both passed their Colleague Exams. Again, thanks to Lella Pomeroy for her hours of service in preparing the candidates so well.

MEMBERSHIPS DUE

Enclosed with this newsletter is your membership form to sign up for the 1993-94 year. It is due September 1st, so please return it promptly. As promised, we have held the dues to $57.00 (same as last year). Suggested dues are $62.00. Although a $5.00 savings is not a lot, we hope it will be helpful.

TENTATIVE 1993-94 CHAPTER CALENDAR

We will not be having a repertoire session each meeting this year. In addition to our American Contemporary session and a night of Bush and/or Bach, Joan Stevens will share her expertise on accompanying the "Messiah" on the organ. Also, the BYU graduate students will pass on their research to us. The local Deans are organizing a workshop by Sandra Sonderlund, our Regional Convener, sometime in October.
