

EASY BUT EFFECTIVE HYMN INTRODUCTIONS

Wake Up! Get Prepared! The Call to Sing

Lella E. Pomeroy

UVAGO Super Saturday, 29 April 2017

1. Unison and Harmony (good for beginners)
 - #41 Let Zion in Her Beauty Rise (good example--already there)
 - #171 With Humble Heart
2. Pedal Point (Dominant or 5th of Scale)
 - #3 Now Let Us Rejoice
 - #124 Be Still, My Soul
3. Downward Scale
 - #199 He is Risen
 - Combining Pedal Point with Harmony/downward Scale
 - #27 Praise to the Man (chorus)
4. Horn Call and Harmony
 - #19 We Thank Thee, O God, For a Prophet
 - Combining Horn Call and Pedal Point
 - #5 High on the Mountain Top
5. Terrace--SATB (requires 4 phrases)
 - #172 In Humility, Our Savior
 - #44 Beautiful Zion, Built Above
 - #129 Where Can I Turn for Peace
6. Terrace--Swell manual, plus pedal, Great solo, all Great (for short hymns or intros with four phrases)
 - #123 O May My Soul Commune With Thee
 - #180 Father in Heaven, We do Believe
7. Manuals Only
 - #302 I Know My Father Lives (requires it)
 - #23 We Ever Pray for Thee
 - #178 O Lord of Hosts (w/double middle)
8. Doubled 3rd's to Pedal Point
 - #6 Redeemer of Israel
9. Doubled SA to SATB
 - #85 How Firm a Foundation

Ground Rules

1. Same registration, volume level and tempo as singing for the first verse...
2. Be crisp and confident...
3. Don't do it all the time, every single hymn. Use it when it cries out for it. Keep it special. I use it only one hymn per worship service so that it never becomes commonplace.

