Miranda Wilcox

Dear Friends,

I hope you and your families are staying healthy and sane during this unusual summer.

I would like to invite our chapter community to thank the 2018-2020 chapter board members, especially Lori Serr for her excellent leadership as dean. Send good karma their way for their dedication and service to our chapter.

I am pleased to announce the 2020-2022 chapter board members. Many thanks to Mike Carson for facilitating this transition.

Dean: Miranda Wilcox
Sub-dean: Heidi Rodeback

BYU Student Representative: TBA
Members-at-Large: Neil Harmon, Lella Pomeroy, Lori Serr, Jack Stoneman, Ruth Eldredge Thomas

Planning chapter events in the midst of a pandemic will stretch our creativity and ingenuity. If you have suggestions for organ-related activities that accommodate social distancing guidelines, please send me an email: mirandawilcox96@gmail.com.

It is an honor to accept the invitation to serve as dean. Twelve years ago, I joined the faculty of the English Department at BYU to teach medieval literature. As a break from academic pressures, I studied organ with Don Cook. Don invited me to UVAGO activities, joking that one day I would become chapter dean. I thought that was a crazy idea, but I was hungry for social interaction. Chapter members kindly welcomed a fellow organ lover, and friendships have blossomed over the years, as I have served on chapter boards as secretary, newsletter editor, and sub-dean. My story is testament that every organist enthusiast is welcome in our chapter.

I hope that the new board will continue the chapter's legacy of supporting and enhancing all of our chapter members' engagement with the organ.

Be well,
Miranda

COVID Resources from National AGO

During these times of uncertainty, the American Guild of Organists remains dedicated to the needs of our members and fulfilling our vision; to engage, support, and uplift every organist. It is our mission to foster a thriving community of musicians who share their knowledge and inspire passion for the organ. Now more than ever, we understand the importance of strengthening our wonderful organization by providing much needed benefits to all our members.

As a result, the AGO has compiled some valuable resources for musicians and teachers who are experiencing reduced income and/or the need to adapt to a new, virtual world due to the Coronavirus Pandemic: <https://www.agohq.org/responding-to-covid-19/>. This page is frequently updated with helpful information, so we encourage you to check it often.
